Interview questions and list

Hello MinecraftOnline, and welcome to the ninth episode of the minecraftOnline interviews. Before we begin the interview, the MinecraftOnline interviews will serve as a way to archive players' experiences of the server in an auditory format, rather than a short, bland, wiki article.

Today our guest is 2b2tLegends

When did you first join MinecraftOnline?

How has the server changed from when you first joined {insert amount of years or months since first join date}

What was your first experience on the server like?

Would you like to explain your skin and username?

What's the longest Wiki article you have typed out?

What are some major MCO Historical events that you were here for?

Are there any notable players that don't play anymore that you can recall?

Do you know of any fun facts about the server you would like to share?

Who are your closest friends on the server?

What do you think you are most well known for here?

Are you enjoying the easter event Anna_28 put together for us?

What would you like to see on the server in the future?

What's some advice you would like to give to new players on the server?

If you are around this server a year from now, would you like to revisit these questions for a second video?
